

News Update

Following a lengthy period of introspection we are proud to announce a new management structure for the administration of the courses. A new company called Soul Purpose has been established to provide all the Turning Point and other Universal Training courses. Graham, Mark and Susan will continue to teach the existing range of courses and will assist in the development of new courses, seminars and workshops. Universal Training will continue to operate for support sessions, business courses and other activities.

Much reflection has been given to our name Soul Purpose. We believe that this accurately reflects the essence of the company and all our courses. Our vision is to reconnect with our purpose for being here, to remember who we really are and to overcome barriers that separate us as people, so that we might realise our dreams as individuals and as the greater dream of mankind collectively.

Soul Purpose is a limited company and many of you will know one or more of the nine Directors:- Guy Bolam, Graham Browne, Susan Denny, Sally Frost, Dave Gibbs, Margaret Jarrett, Freda Lacey, Mark Reeves and Tim Ridge. By everyone doing what they do best, the high standards of the teaching that has been so well loved and valued over the past 20 years will be felt and seen in the dedicated professionalism of the organisation, office administration, promotion, marketing and general communications.

This is an exciting time for us. From the conception over 12 months ago, we have been meeting regularly to give focus and direction to our dreams. In November we are holding our first Turning Point course.

The Public Launch of the new company will take place at a Central London venue on Saturday 15th November. Please make a note in your diary today to join us for the celebrations and find out about our exciting plans for the future. Invitations will be issued shortly.

In the meantime please feel free to contact any of the Directors for information or for a chat. If you prefer, you can now e-mail us at info@SoulPurpose.org.uk For the latest news, we have set up an online discussion group at MSN. If you would like to receive an invitation to join the group, please contact Tim Ridge at TimRidge1@compuserve.com Contributions for the newsletter can now be sent to the newsletter address newsletter@SoulPurpose.org.uk

We welcome your support in this venture along with your ideas and any offers of help that you feel moved to extend. So if you have skills that you think we may need then now is the time to step forward. Thank you for the patience and support that have helped us on our journey so far.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Our first course will be preceded by two free Evening Seminars in Central London for old friends and new. Led by Graham, these evenings will provide a stimulating opportunity for previous participants to revisit the core themes of the Turning Point, whilst offering an introduction to the course for family and friends. As you would expect from Graham, they will be inspiring and provocative, so fasten your seatbelts and join us for an unforgettable journey. The Seminars will take place at the Amadeus Centre, situated a short walk from Little Venice and Warwick Avenue Tube Station on the Bakerloo Line.

Our regular Introductory Evenings at the Enfield Civic Centre continue on the first Wednesday of each month. The Launch Celebration will be held on Saturday 15th November and the Turning Point course commences on Friday 28th November. For full details, see the countdown below.
